STYLING TIP:

The Vintage Bar Cart Revival

The bar cart is back—and more stylish than ever. A vintage cart adds instant charm and character to any space, whether it's brass and glass glam from the '70s or sleek mid-century minimalism.

Style it with cut crystal glasses, a couple of beautiful bottles, and a stack of chic cocktail books. Add a personal touch with a vintage ice bucket, fresh flowers, or a candle. Even when not in use, it becomes a curated moment—a mobile vignette that elevates your space.

Tip: Mix old and new to keep it feeling fresh and intentional.

CONVERSATION PIECES

At Stenella Antiques, we believe that the best spaces are filled with stories. This month, we're highlighting conversation pieces—those standout items that captivate the eye and spark dialogue.

HENREDON ASTON COURT SECRETARY

Smoked mirrored doors, bonnet top finials, and herringbone inlay create a regal yet welcoming workspace. Elegant and unexpected.

PAIR VINTAGE ITALIAN ARMCHAIRS

These 1930s chairs have been restored and upholstered in designer fabric, offering both comfort and style.

KITTINGER CW-157 DRESSING TABLE

This rare reproduction of a 1710-1720 Pennsylvania antique features trumpet legs and a beautifully carved stretcher base with a finial, making it a standout in any room.

EACH OF THESE PIECES BRINGS A UNIQUE NARRATIVE TO YOUR HOME, TRANSFORMING EVERYDAY SPACES INTO SHOWCASES OF HISTORY AND CRAFTSMANSHIP.
