Shop Where the Designers Shop!

FEBRUARY MAY BE SHORT, BUT IT'S FULL OF STORIES WORTH TELLING—AND PIECES WORTH REMEMBERING. THIS MONTH'S

STENELLA INSIDER TAKES YOU BEHIND THE SCENES, CELEBRATES A STANDOUT SOLD FAVORITE, AND HIGHLIGHTS WHAT'S INSPIRING US RIGHT NOW.

Behind the Scenes

HOW THE HUNT BEGINS

Every piece at Stenella Antiques & Interiors has a story long before it reaches the showroom. Our sourcing process takes us everywhere—from private estates and trusted collectors to quiet moments of discovery that simply feel meant to be. We carefully evaluate craftsmanship, condition, provenance, and timeless appeal to ensure every item aligns with the Stenella Antiques & Interiors aesthetic.

As part of that journey, we are always looking to buy and consign high-quality furniture and décor that reflects our brand's character and quality. If you have a piece you love but are ready to part with, we'd be honored to help it find its next home.

Gone, But Not Forgotten

A TRUE STANDOUT

Some pieces don't stay long—and for good reason.

Our Paul Evans Mid Century Modern Brutalist Cabinet made a bold statement the moment it arrived and sold almost immediately. With its sculptural presence, iconic craftsmanship, and undeniable impact, it was one of those rare finds that reminds us why we do what we do.

While it may be gone, it certainly won't be forgotten.

WHAT WE'RE LOVING RIGHT NOW

February has us leaning into rich textures, warm woods, and pieces that make a room feel layered and lived-in. Think sculptural forms, unexpected finishes, and furniture that sparks conversation while still feeling timeless.

This is the month for thoughtful design—pieces that don't shout, but quietly steal the show.
