Shop Where the Designers Shop!

A Fresh Perspective

MARCH ALWAYS FEELS LIKE A SHIFT – LONGER LIGHT, CLEANER LINES, AND ROOMS THAT START ASKING FOR SOMETHING NEW. THIS MONTH AT STENELLA ANTIQUES & INTERIORS, WE'RE LEANING INTO PIECES THAT BRING WARMTH AND CHARACTER WITHOUT HEAVINESS. THINK SCULPTURAL FORMS, RICH WOOD TONES, AND CRAFTSMANSHIP THAT FEELS COLLECTED RATHER THAN DECORATED.

IF YOU'VE BEEN WAITING FOR THE RIGHT PIECE TO RESET A SPACE, THIS IS A GOOD MONTH TO LOOK AGAIN.

OUR NEWEST OBSESSIONS

We've been sourcing pieces that strike the balance between statement and livable — furniture that anchors a room but still feels refined.

This month you'll see:

- Architectural case pieces
- Elegant dining tables with presence
- Unique seating with strong lines and beautiful scale
- Warm walnut, rich cherry, and textural finishes

Each piece is selected for quality, proportion, and longevity — the kind of furniture that won't feel tired in five years.

March Trend Notes

WHAT WE'RE SEEING IN DESIGN RIGHT NOW

Brown is Back (and Better Than Ever)

Deep walnut, espresso, and warm mid-tones are replacing gray. Rooms feel grounded, layered, and inviting.

Mixed Period Rooms

Modern next to traditional. Clean lines paired with ornate details. It feels curated, not matched.

Statement Storage

Cabinets and credenzas are becoming focal points rather than background pieces.

A Note From Behind the Scenes

Sourcing season is in full swing. We spend a significant amount of time evaluating condition, authenticity, construction, and overall presence before anything makes it to our floor.

We are always looking to purchase or consign high-quality furniture that aligns with the Stenella Antiques & Interiors aesthetic — timeless design, strong materials, and exceptional craftsmanship.

If you have something you're considering selling, feel free to reach out.
