The Art of the Autumn Home

CREATING WARMTH, CHARACTER, AND BEAUTIFULLY LAYERED SPACES FOR THE SEASON AHEAD.

As summer fades and the days begin to slow, September invites us to settle back into the rooms we love most.

This season, think beyond pumpkins and plaid. Fall decorating is about creating warmth through rich woods, beautiful textiles, collected antiques, and pieces that make a room feel inviting.

At Stenella Antiques & Interiors, we believe the most beautiful homes are built over time—one exceptional piece at a time.

Rich Woods

Bring warmth into a room with mahogany, walnut & cherry.

Golden Accents

Gilded details and warm metallics add a subtle glow.

Texture & Layering

Mix upholstery, rugs, mirrors and accessories to create depth.

The secret? You don't need to redecorate the entire room.

Sometimes one exceptional piece is all it takes to change the feeling of a space.

THE RULE OF THREE

One of the easiest ways designers create rooms that feel collected rather than decorated? They group things in threes. Three doesn't mean everything has to match. In fact, the beauty is in the contrast.

1. START WITH A STATEMENT

Choose one piece to anchor the arrangement—a beautiful chest, console, mirror, painting or exceptional accessory.

2. ADD TWO COMPLEMENTS

Bring in two additional pieces that support it without competing. Think lamp + accessory, two chairs + table, or mirror + pair of lamps.

3. VARY THE DETAILS

The three pieces don't have to be identical. Mix height, texture, shape or finish to create visual interest.

Designer tip:

If a room feels a little flat, try adding one more layer before adding more furniture. A mirror, lamp, artwork or accessory may be all you need.

That's the art of a collected room—not more, but better.

Where Would You Put It?
