THE SEASON OF STAYING IN

There's something about October that makes home feel a little more inviting.

The days get shorter, the evenings linger a little longer, and suddenly we find ourselves wanting to settle in, entertain friends, and enjoy the spaces we've created.

This month, we're celebrating the furniture and details that make a house feel like a place you truly want to be.

WHY FALL IS MADE FOR GOOD FURNITURE

FALL HAS A WAY OF CHANGING HOW WE EXPERIENCE OUR HOMES.

A DINING TABLE BECOMES THE GATHERING PLACE
FOR LONG DINNERS. A COMFORTABLE CHAIR
BECOMES THE SPOT YOU FIND YOURSELF
RETURNING TO EVERY EVENING. A BEAUTIFUL
LAMP TRANSFORMS A ROOM ONCE THE SUN GOES DOWN.

IT'S THESE EVERYDAY MOMENTS THAT REMIND US
WHY GREAT FURNITURE MATTERS.
THE RIGHT PIECES DON'T SIMPLY FILL A ROOM —
THEY GIVE IT CHARACTER, FUNCTION, AND A SENSE OF BELONGING.

AND THAT'S EXACTLY WHAT WE LOVE ABOUT THEM.

THE ART OF THE MIX

One of our favorite ways to make a room feel collected is to mix different styles, periods, and materials.

- ✦ Start with one strong piece. Let an antique or vintage piece set the tone.
- ✦ Repeat something. Pull a color, finish, shape, or material from another part of the room.
- ✦ Don't make everything match. A little contrast is what keeps a room interesting.

The goal isn't to make everything coordinate perfectly. It's to create a room that looks like it evolved naturally over time.
